DESIGNER
GECKELER MICHELS

YEAR
2024

Crafted with precision and attention to detail, the aluminum stool Runout embodies modern elegance and practical functionality in form of a well know barstool silhouette. Its main design feature makes it a sturdy tool, yet the delicately hollowed-out frame elements, impart a light and elegant appearance.

Runout is also available in a swivel version, designed to ensure maximum functionality and comfort. The rotation system, integrated within the seat, allows for smooth and controlled movement while maintaining a clean and minimalist aesthetic. The engineering of the mechanism guarantees durability and reliability, offering a stable and intuitive user experience. The Runout swivel version is available across the entire range of heights and seats, as well as the upholstered seat.

Runout

Geckler Michels explores product functionality around human habits, with a forecasting eye on ever evolving usages and ways of expression. The duo articulates innovative positions, deliberately embracing history of design, contemporary technologies and digital design methods.

Geckler Michels functionalist approach is typically complemented by an intriguing detail or logic, lending the product a thrilling and thus long-standing narrative.

David Geckeler and Frank Michels established their Berlin based design studio in 2013. Areas of work include furniture, lighting, products and spaces. The research-led practice focuses on autonomous in-house studies, as well as creative direction and product collections for their clients, whilst also producing editions and one-offs.
